

LEAF

Hi. I'm Leaf and here is my tree, yet my sisters aren't here like they usually are. Actually, I don't know where anyone is right now. On the other trees all the leaves are gone. The only person that I can find is Rose the tulip sprite. I want to stay on my tree.

"Rose, can you help me stay on my tree?" I say.

"Yeah sure," says Rose. She walks along my branch and trips a knot. Rose slips and knocks me off the tree.

I flutter through the air. Looking down, I see all my sisters are carpeting the ground underneath the tree.

I call out, "Thanks for helping me Rose."
